

Compaq my Bhasha user wins 32 Inch LCD TV

Wednesday, July 15, 2009

By Read it India News Bureau

FTK Technologies and HP India have announced the winner of the “Compaq my Bhasha Lucky Draw” raffle. The raffle, held every Quarter between the users of the revolutionary software, Lcd Tv Wall Mounts Find Suppliers of A/V promises the lucrative price of a 32_ LCD TV to a randomly selected user of “Compaq my Bhasha”. This time the winner of the raffle is Mr. Rajendra Chotia, a business man from the city of Bikaner, Rajasthan thus receives the 32” LCD TV.

While collecting his prize at the formal presenting ceremony in FTK’s office in Delhi, the winner of the raffle, Mr. Rajendra Chotia, said: “I am very excited to receive this prize. Compaq my Bhasha has already helped me to use my computer in my own language, and made it a lot easier for me to e-mail and chat with my friends and colleagues in Hindi. Winning this LCD TV is definitely a nice surprise to add to my good experience with Compaq my Bhasha.”

“I really wish more and more people used this software. This can bridge the barriers as one does not really need to learn English to work in a computer, it can be done in your own language,” he added.

While presenting the award, Mr. Neeloy Roy Chowdhury, Vice President-Marketing and Sales, FTK Technologies said: “We are extremely proud giving away this lucrative prize. We at FTK believe the users of Compaq my Bhasha can enjoy an enhanced experience by using their computer in their own language, and we will keep doing our best to give them more and more added value.

This raffle is yet another way of keeping in touch with the needs and important feedback of our on growing user base, helping us to provide them with a new kind of computing experience and service. We are looking forward to many more winners, and many more happy customers.”

Compaq my Bhasha – a unique vernacular languages software, is bundled with all Compaq Presario Desktops from the “CQ 2000_ series, and is giving users the option of Indian languages interface. Launched by HP on the month of January 2009, the CQ 2000 series is a unique series of desktops targeted toward modern households, at the amazing price of Rs.18,990 plus taxes.

This entry was posted on Wednesday, July 15th, 2009 at 3:19 am and is filed under Business, Computer Hardware, Computer Networks, Computer

Software. You can follow any responses to this entry through the RSS 2.0 feed.

Comments are closed.